About The Cambridge School

If you're looking for a meaningful vocation that seeks to form young people to live flourishing, eudaemonic lives while collaborating with thoughtful, mission-focused colleagues in an intentional community of faith and learning, The Cambridge School in beautiful San Diego, California, might be just the place for you!

We are a JK-12th grade Classical Christian school that is 20 years old and thriving. We are committed to equipping students to think well, love rightly, and live wisely through an educational model that is rooted in historic Protestantism and the best of the classical tradition. Our mission embodies a dedication to shaping students' affections towards the true, good, and beautiful by providing them with an education that is formative and not merely informative. While this is no easy task in our day and age, together we are faithfully seeking to cultivate wisdom and virtue in our students through our academically-vigorous and spiritually-robust community of faith and learning. If this resonates with you, please go to our school website at www.cambridgeclassical.org to learn more and apply!

Position Overview

The school is seeking a passionate teacher who personally aligns with the mission, vision, and values of the school. The school seeks teachers who are committed to the classical Christian model of education and are interested in shaping student's affections to love the true, good and beautiful by providing them with an education that is formative rather than merely informative. An ideal candidate will have experience teaching in a classical Christian environment or at least two years of classroom teaching experience, preferably in grades K-6. A graduate degree and teaching credential are not required but preferred. Successful candidates will wholeheartedly agree with our school's statement of faith and will see teaching as a vocational destination, not a stepping stone.
